Making a Will with WSL couldn't be easier

If you are one of the many people in the UK who have never got round to writing a Will, WSL is here to help. By selecting our straightforward personalised service you will gain peace of mind knowing your loved ones and assets are fully protected.

Why write a Will?

Writing a Will is the only way you can legally record your wishes, putting you in full control of what happens to your assets after you pass away.

Preparing a Will is the only way to:

- Appoint Executors that you know and trust to deal with your affairs
- Appoint guardians and trustees for children under 18
- Name your beneficiaries and specify how much of your estate they are to receive
- Name your partner as a beneficiary if you are unmarried – without being named in your Will they will receive nothing from your estate
- Make provision for minor children, children from a previous relationship or vulnerable beneficiaries
- Add any new grandchildren to your Will so they can inherit something from you directly
- Protect property and ensure your estate is as tax efficient as possible

“We would like to thank WSL for making this whole process so simple and easy.”

Mrs Jackson, London

Three simple steps to peace of mind

1 Register

Select the benefit by registering your details at wsl-ltd.co.uk/gemelli or call on 0208 380 4115. One of the team will call you back to arrange your appointment. Our home visit, telephone or video chat appointments are available day-times and evenings, seven days a week, so there's no need to take time off work to visit a solicitor's office.

2 Home visit appointment

WSL's friendly consultants will offer you specialist advice tailored to your individual circumstances and wishes. They won't use complex legal jargon so often found in "DIY" kits – just simple to follow explanations and advice, allowing you to make the right decisions for you and your family.

3 Receive your documents

Your Will and any additional documents will be drafted by our legal department and sent to you within 21 days of your appointment. You will also receive WSL's comprehensive guide to signing and witnessing.

Points to Consider

The Will only covers assets within England and Wales. Should you live outside of WSL's coverage area for a home visit you will be offered a telephone or video appointment. WSL's coverage area can be found at: wsl-ltd.co.uk/postcodes. Will writing appointments cannot be offered in the workplace.

What will it cost?

WSL is delighted to offer users of Gemelli Employee Benefits the following preferential rates:

- Up to 34% off the cost of your Will
 - £105 instead of £160 for a single Will
 - £140 instead of £215 for a mirror Will, perfect for a couple
- 7.5% off additional services
 - WSL offers a range of additional services that may help give you extra peace of mind, such as trusts or secure storage of your Will.

What sets us apart?

Our Convenience

Our service is designed for busy people just like you. Instead of having the hassle of taking time off work to visit a solicitor, with WSL you can book an appointment at a time that suits you. Our consultants are available seven days a week, including evenings and weekends, meaning you can discuss your wishes face to face in the comfort of your own home, over the phone or by video chat.

Our Experience

Since 1992 WSL has helped thousands of people like you protect what is most precious to them. Even if you consider your circumstances to be complicated our consultants will be able to guide you through the process and explain everything in plain English. You can be assured that there will be no guesswork or confusing legal jargon, just simple to follow professional advice – allowing you to make the right decisions for you and your family.

Our Reputation

WSL is committed to the highest levels of service and care and this is reflected in our many client recommendations to family and friends and in our Feefo, Trustpilot and Google review ratings. WSL is also a member of The Society of Willwriters and each Will is protected by professional indemnity insurance. You can therefore be confident that your employees are in the safest hands.

What happens without a Will?

Although making a Will may seem like a daunting task, not leaving a Will can leave your family facing many uncertainties, as was the case for Mr I Never Got Round To It...

Last Will and Testament of Mr I Never Got Round To It

To my Family, I am ashamed to say I did not find the time to write a Will therefore I leave you months, possibly years, of financial hardship and emotional distress as you go to the efforts of finalising my affairs.

To my Spouse, although I have worked hard for many years to provide for our family I now leave you some of what I own— but not necessarily all of it.

To my children, I leave you the remainder of my estate, even if it means Mum has to move out of the family home to realise your inheritance.

To my children from a previous relationship, I have left the majority of my estate to your new step-mother and what may be left you'll have to wait the remainder of her life before you receive all of it.

To my partner, if we are not married then I leave you absolutely nothing.

To Social Services, if my children are sadly orphaned, I leave them in your hands and authorise you to choose who shall look after them until they are 18 years old. The decision is yours.

To the Tax Man, I leave you all the tax I could have avoided and left to my family instead. I'm sure the Government will appreciate it and spend it wisely.

To my bank and/or Solicitor, you may charge whatever you like to sort out the mess I have left behind. Take what you want...I'm sure you will have earned it.

To the charities I have supported during my lifetime I leave you nothing. To anyone else I had in mind I leave you nothing.

Yours,

Mr I Never Got Round To It.
